

CHAPTER 46

AN ACT

[H. B. 119]

To create corporate municipalities of the third class and to prescribe the procedure for their incorporation and government, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. The permanent inhabitants and the real property owners of any neighborhood or district, not exceeding 50 square miles in area, not within the boundaries of either an incorporated municipality, incorporated school district, or an independent school district, may form a municipal corporation of the third class in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 2. The procedure to incorporate shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 16-2-2, ACLA 1949, other than that the petition to incorporate may be initiated and signed by not less than five adults who are either bona fide residents or who own real property in such neighborhood or district and such petition shall state the number of permanent inhabitants and also the number of real property owners in said neighborhood or district.

Section 3. The procedure for the election, ballots, trustees, certificates of results, and court order thereon shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 16-2-3, ACLA 1949, other than each permanent adult inhabitant of, as well as each owner of real property in, such neighborhood or district shall be a qualified elector and entitled to vote at all of such elections.

Fees.

Section 4. Whenever a petition for the incorporation for a municipality of the third class shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court the petitioners or some of them shall deposit with the clerk a sum of money sufficient to pay the fees to be earned by him in connection with the proceedings required for incorporation.

Trustee powers.

Section 5. The trustees of such municipal corporation of the third class shall have the same powers as those conferred by Section 16-2-5, ACLA 1949, upon trustees of municipalities of the second class.

Emergency clause.

Section 6. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval.

Approved March 20, 1951.
