CHAPTER 54

AN ACT

[S. B. 35]

Relating to the sale or disposition of intoxicating liquor; amending

Sec. 35-4-15 (1) ACLA 1949.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Sec. 35-4-15 (1) ACLA 1949 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 35-4-15. Restrictions on sale or disposition of liquor: Minors, intoxicated persons and drunkards: Election days: Near churches and schools: Licensee's premises and inspection thereof: Licenses: Seizure and sale of contraband liquor.

Prohibited sales.

(1) Sale, etc., to minors, intoxicated persons or drunkards: Classification of premises. It shall be unlawful to give, barter or sell any intoxicating liquors, including beer and wine, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, to any intoxicated person, or to any habitual drunkard; and it shall be unlawful for any licensee to permit the giving, selling, bartering or drinking of any intoxicating liquor within the premises covered by any license to or by any of the forbidden classes, nor shall such licensee permit the drinking of hard or distilled liquors by any person upon the premises covered by his license, unless the same is permitted under the classification of his license.

Revocation of licenses.

Revocation of license: Persons deemed minors. The drinking of intoxicating liquors on the premises covered by any license by any of the forbidden classes, or the presence of any intoxicated person on such premises, shall be cause for revocation of any such license, and further, that any person attending any grade or high school shall be considered less than twenty-one years of age, and the burden of determining the age shall be on the licensee.

Limit of sales on election days.

Sales on election day. It shall be unlawful to give, barter, sell, or in any way dispose of any intoxicating liquor, including beer and wine, upon any day on which any general, special, or Primary Election is held in the Territory or to so dispose of liquor in any Municipality or other Political Subdivision thereof when an election is being held therein until the polls have been closed on such day.

Approved March 22, 1951.
