CHAPTER 139

AN ACT

[H. B. 201]

To extend certain provisions of the Alaska World War II Veterans' Act to veterans who served during the conflict in Korea.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Veterans Act extended to Korean veterans.

Section 1. The provisions of the Alaska World War II Veterans' Act, Sections 44-2-11 to 44-2-14 inclusive, ACLA 1949, as amended by Chapter 87, Session Laws of Alaska 1949, and Chapter 83, Session Laws of Alaska 1951, except those provisions contained therein relating to the payment of bonuses, are hereby extended to any person who served honorably on active duty in the armed forces of the United States between June 25, 1950 (the beginning of the conflict in Korea), and the cessation of the present national emergency as de-terminated and proclaimed by the Governor of Alaska, and to dependents of such person, subject however to the following provisions and eligibility qualifications:

(1) Persons who have served in the armed forces of the United States for one year or more, or whose service was for a lesser period because of injury or disability incurred in line of duty, between June 25, 1950 (the beginning of the conflict in Korea), and the cessation of the present national emergency as determined and proclaimed by the Governor of Alaska; who have been honorably separated or discharged from the armed forces or who have been released to a reserve component; who at the time of entry into the service were bona fide residents of the Territory of Alaska and had been residents thereof for not less than one year prior to their entry into the service; and who have returned to the Territory within a reasonable length of time after discharge or separation as residents with the intention of remaining in the Territory.

Eligibility provisions.

(2) Persons who were dependent upon a member of the armed forces or upon a veteran eligible for the benefits of this Act at the time of such member's or veteran's death; provided, that such member or veteran was a resident of the Territory of Alaska for one year prior to entry into service and has died prior to the cessation of the present national emergency as determined and proclaimed by the Governor of Alaska. Such dependents must not be remarried and the deceased veteran or member of the armed forces must have been their chief means of support; they must be either a widow, widower, minor child, or a mother, father, sister or brother incapable of self support; and they must be residents of the Territory at the time of application and must intend to remain residents therein permanently. The rights of minor children under this Act may be exercised only if they have no surviving parent and have a duly appointed guardian who may make application on their behalf for any of the benefits of this Act for their care, support or education.

Limitation on eligibility.

(3) No person shall be eligible to receive any of the benefits of this Act who is eligible for veterans benefits under the laws of any State or other Territory.

Additional residence requirement.

(4) As to persons otherwise eligible for the benefits under the provisions of this Act, as defined in subsection (1) of this section, who have not returned to the Territory within one year after separation from Service unless prevented from doing so for medical, educational or other valid purposes approved by the Commissioner of Veterans' Affairs within one year after separation of service, an additional requirement of four years residence in the Territory prior to their entry in the service is imposed to entitle them to the benefit provisions of this Act.

Authorization to Veterans Commission to secure loan funds.

Section 2. For the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the Territorial Office of the Commissioner of Veterans Affairs is hereby authorized to negotiate with and transfer or sell to and repurchase from the Territorial Treasurer its preferred commercial paper, not to exceed $1,000,000.00 for cash, which cash shall be used only for the purposes of making loans to veterans eligible under this Act.
