

CHAPTER 61

AN ACT

Amending 65-5-41 ACLA 1949, pertaining to larceny; and declaring an emergency.

(H. B. 150)

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 65-5-41 ACLA 1949 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 65-5-41. Larceny of money, etc.: Description in indictment.

That if any person shall steal any money, goods, or chattels, or any Government note, or bank note, promissory note, or bill of exchange, bond, or other thing in action, or any book of accounts, order, or certificate, concerning money or goods, due or to become due or to be delivered, or any deed or writing containing a conveyance of land or any interest therein, or any bill of sale, or writing containing a conveyance of goods or chattels or any interest therein, or any other valuable contract in force, or any receipt, release, or defeasance, or any writ, process, or public record, the property of another, such person shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and upon conviction thereof, if the property stolen shall exceed in value one hundred dollars, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than ten years; but if the property stolen shall not exceed the value of one hundred dollars, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month nor more than one year, or by fine not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars; Provided, That in all prosecutions for the larceny of money wherein an exact description of the number and denomination of the coin or other money taken cannot be given, it shall be sufficient to allege that the same was lawful money of the United States, or of any other country or countries as the case may be, and the value thereof in money of the United States.

Section 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.
