AN ACT

To amend Section 61-2-9, ACLA, 1949, relating to limitation of contest of wills.

(S. B. 122)

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 61-2-9 ACLA 1949 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 61-2-9. Contest of Wills:

Limitation. When a will has been admitted to probate, any person interested may, at any time within six months after the entry of the order of probate thereof, contest the same or the validity of such will; and in case a will has been heretofore admitted to probate, such contest may be made at any time within six months from the taking effect of this act; and all proceedings for such contests must be begun within the time herein specified; provided, that if a person entitled to contest the probate of a will or the validity thereof be laboring under any legal disability, the time in which he may institute such contest shall be extended six months from and after the removal of such disability. Any foreign will may be contested and annulled within the same time and in the same manner as wills executed and proven in the Territory.

Approved March 23, 1955
