

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 36-3-2 ACILA 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 36-3-2. Articles of incorporation: Filing: Amendment. Its certificate of articles of incorporation shall be filed for record in the office of the Auditor of the Territory of Alaska and thereupon it shall become a corporation and such association shall have the right and be subject to all the duties, restrictions and liabilities prescribed in chapter 8, of the Session Laws of Alaska, 1931, entitled "An Act to revise the general laws of business corporations of the Territory of Alaska" (Sections 36-1-1—36-1-35, 36-1-91—36-1-122, 36-1-141—36-1-148, 36-6-1 herein) so far as the same apply to or relate to such association. Provided, however, that said articles of incorporation may be amended at any regular or duly called special meeting of the members of the association, by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting and present at such meeting or by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting by means of a mail ballot, which ballot shall be distributed by registered mail to the members of the association and returned by each voting member in an unmarked, sealed envelope enclosed within a mailing envelope bearing on its face the name and address of the member and his membership number or other means of identification of his status as a member.

Section 2. Section 36-3-3, ACILA 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 36-3-3. Residence of incorporators: Term of corporate existence. A majority of the incorporators shall be residents of the Territory of Alaska, and the term of existence of any such association without renewal shall not exceed fifty-five years.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

CHAPTER 98

AN ACT

Pertaining to Fishermen's license fee; to amend Section 2 of Chapter 66,

Session Laws of Alaska 1949 as amended by Chapter 67, Session Laws of Alaska 1953; and declaring an emergency.

(S. B. 92)

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 2 of Chapter 66, Session Laws of Alaska 1949 as amended by Chapter 67, Session Laws of Alaska 1953, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. No person shall become engaged as a fisherman as above defined without first obtaining a license so to do. License fees levied upon fishermen are as follows: Resident fisherman, $10; non-resident fisherman $15. Such licenses shall run for one calendar year, and expire on December 31 of each year. For the purposes of this Act, a resident shall be any citizen who has resided in the Territory for 12 months immediately preceding application for such license and shall have been a bona fide inhabitant of Alaska for at least six months during each calendar year thereafter, and who maintains his place of abode in Alaska. A non-resident is a citizen who has not resided in Alaska for the 12 months immediately preceding application for license or who maintains his principal business or place of abode outside of the Territory. Any person not a citizen of the United States is deemed to be an alien unless he possesses a valid declaration of intention to become such citizen.

Section 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Approved March 25, 1955

CHAPTER 99

AN ACT

To amend Sections 4 and 5, Chapter 100, Session Laws of Alaska 1951 relating to the Fishermen's Fund, to increase revenues to the Fund, and to define "occupational diseases" for benefit purposes, and declaring an emergency.
