

Sec. 3. Sec. 40-6-3, ACLA 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40-6-3. License. After September 1, 1947, no person or government unit, except the Government of the United States, acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall establish, conduct or maintain a hospital in the Territory of Alaska without a license under this law.

Sec. 4. Sec. 40-6-5, ACLA 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40-6-5. Issuance and Renewal of License and Posting. Upon receipt of an application for license and the license fee, the Licensing Agency shall issue a license if the applicant or hospital facilities meet the requirements established under this law. If the applicant or hospital facilities do not meet the requirements established under this law but continued efforts are made to comply with such requirements, then such applicant or hospital may be granted a temporary or provisional license for a reasonable period of time. A license, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall be renewable annually without charge upon filing by the licensee, and approval by the Licensing Agency, of an annual report upon such uniform dates and containing such information in such form as the Licensing Agency prescribes by regulation. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the Licensing Agency. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises.

Sec. 5. Sec. 40-6-9, ACLA 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40-6-9. Inspection and Consultation: Submission of Plans for Alterations or Additions. The Licensing Agency shall make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations annually. The Licensing Agency may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alteration or addition to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the Licensing Agency for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. Necessary conferences and consultations may be provided.

CHAPTER 113

AN ACT

To amend Chapter 66, SLA 1955 pertaining to the office of the Fire

Marshal, defining offenses and prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

(S. B. 87)

Be it enacted by the Legislature
of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Chapter 66, SLA 1955, is hereby amended by adding the following section:

Section 10. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act or the published rules and regulations or orders, promulgated thereunder and from which no appeal has been taken within thirty (30) days after the issuance of a final order, shall severally for each and every such violation, be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person aggrieved by the Fire Marshal's issuance of a final order may appeal to the District Court within thirty (30) days after the issuance of such an order. The imposition of one penalty for any violation shall not excuse the violation or permit it to continue; and all such persons shall be required to correct or remedy such violations or defects within a reasonable time and when not otherwise specified, each ten (10) days that prohibited conditions are maintained shall constitute a separate offense.

The application of the above penalty shall not be held to prevent the enforced removal of prohibited conditions.

Sec. 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval.

CHAPTER 114

AN ACT

Relating to prohibiting employment discrimination; amending Subsection 5 of Sec. 3, Ch. 18, SLA 1953; and repealing and re-enacting Secs. 1 and 10 of Ch. 18, SLA 1953.

(S. B. 94)

Be it enacted by the Legislature
of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 1 of Ch. 18, SLA 1953 is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, employer, employee, labor organization, employment agency or other person or persons to discriminate in the
