

may make such rules and regulations as he deems necessary for the purpose of administering this Act. The scope of the proposed program will depend on the monies appropriated.

Sec. 2. Assistance. Assistance under Section 1 may consist of furnishing the prospector with the following:

(a) Transportation to and from the area selected for prospecting, the cost of which shall not exceed two hundred dollars per season.

(b) Food, clothing, hardware, and tools necessary for the intended prospecting operation, the value of which may not exceed one hundred dollars per month or a maximum of three hundred dollars per season.

(c) Monthly servicing of the prospector by delivering supplies to him and checking his work and well-being.

Sec. 3. Distribution. The number of prospectors to whom assistance may be granted shall be apportioned as near equally as practicable among residents of the four judicial divisions if the number of applicants in all divisions exceeds the number that can be accommodated with available funds. Also, if the number of applicants is too great, the ones to be assisted shall be chosen by drawing lots at a specified time and place in advance of the prospecting season.

Sec. 4. General Provisions. No prospecting operation of less than one month's duration shall be considered under this Act, nor shall any prospector receive assistance more often than once each year. Not more than one prospector in one family or one prospecting party may receive assistance under this Act. Applicants must be citizens of the United States and bona fide residents of Alaska. Department of Mines personnel will supervise and assist the work of prospectors as time and funds permit. The Commissioner of Mines may at any time discontinue assistance to a prospector if, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the prospector is not properly or diligently carrying out the operations in respect of which the assistance was approved.

Sec. 5. Appropriation. Funds to carry out the provisions of this Act may be appropriated in the General Appropriations Bill of the Alaska Legislature.

AN ACT

To amend Section 51-2-13, ACLA 1949, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 158, SLA 1955, to increase from $5.00 to $10.00 the amount which may be paid to residents of the Pioneers' Home without funds; and repealing Section 2, Chapter 158, SLA 1955.

Be it enacted by the Legislature
of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 51-2-13, ACLA 1949, as amended by Sec. 1, Ch. 158, SLA 1955, is hereby amended by deleting all of Section 1 of said Chapter 158, SLA 1955, and adding in lieu thereof the following:

Every person heretofore or hereafter admitted to the Pioneers' Home, except persons admitted under Section 51-2-14 ACLA 1949, who receives income from any source whatsoever in excess of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars per month may be required by the Board of Trustees to pay such excess to the Superintendent of said Home immediately upon receipt thereof in payment, or part payment, of the cost of his maintenance.

At the end of each month said Superintendent shall transmit all such payments to the Territorial Treasurer together with the names of the persons making same and the amount paid by each. Provided, that the Board of Trustees is hereby authorized to pay the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars per month to any resident without funds.

All moneys thus received shall be covered into the General Fund

Sec. 2. Sec. 2, Ch. 158, SLA 1955, is hereby repealed.

AN ACT

To provide for the editing, printing, and distribution of Cumulative Supplements to the Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated, 1949; authorizing an appropriation therefor; and declaring an emergency.

(S. B. 130)

Be it enacted by the Legislature
of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. The Attorney General of the Territory of Alaska shall cause to be prepared and published, the 1957 Cumulative Supplements to the Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated of 1949, (hereinafter called "the main volumes"), which was published in three volumes under the authority of Chapter 28, Session Laws of Alaska, 1947, and adopted as the Code of Alaska by Chapter 1, Extraordinary Session, Session Laws of Alaska, 1949, and by Chapter 101, Session Laws of Alaska, 1951. Such supplements shall include all Acts of the Legislature of a general and permanent nature now in force which were enacted during the period from the end of the regular session of 1947 to the end of the regular session of 1957. It shall also include Acts of Congress applicable exclusively to Alaska and notes of court decisions for the period from the close of the main volumes to the close of the Supplements. Such other materials shall be included as, in the opinion
