

applicant, licensee, or respondent, he may appeal such order to the District Court of the judicial division in which he resides by serving upon the Real Estate Commissioner and the Attorney General of Alaska, a written notice of his intention to appeal within ten (10) days of the receipt by him of a copy of the findings of fact and conclusions of law and order based thereupon. Such notice may include a written demand for copies of all papers, documents, and transcripts in the possession of the Commission, and the Commission, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of said notice and demand, and after the respondent has tendered the cost therefor, shall furnish the applicant or respondent with certified copies of all such matters in its possession. After the receipt of all such papers, documents and transcripts by the applicant, licensee or respondent, the matter shall be set for hearing by the District Court, and the cause shall be given priority on the Court calendar. Upon the hearing of such appeal, the burden of proof shall be on the applicant, and the Court shall receive and consider any pertinent evidence, whether documentary or oral, concerning the actions of the Commission from which the appeal is taken. The hearing of the appeal shall not be a trial de novo of the cause; the Court shall be limited solely to a consideration and determination of the question of whether there has been an abuse of discretion on the part of the Commission in entering such order.

Sec. 11. Existing Licenses. No holder of a permanent broker's, associate broker's, or real estate salesman's license, issued in accordance with any previous law, shall be required to obtain a new original license by reason of this Act.
