CHAPTER 169

AN ACT

Relating to a debt of the state; providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for state buildings; providing for the submission to a vote of the qualified voters of the state of the proposition of whether or not such bonds may be issued for such purposes; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 466)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. For the purpose of paying all or part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, equipping, and making necessary capital improvements to a state office building in Anchorage and a state office building in Fairbanks, general obligation bonds of the state in the principal sum of not to exceed $9,000,000 shall be issued and sold. The full faith, credit and resources of the state shall be and are hereby pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, which bonds shall be issued under the provisions of the State Bonding Act of 1960. The legislature may provide additional sources of money for the payment of such principal and interest and this Act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method of payment.

Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed 6% per annum and shall mature in not to exceed 30 years from date of issue.

The specific capital improvements to be acquired, constructed, and made out of the proceeds of a sale of such bonds shall be as hereafter determined by the governor under rules and standards to be fixed by the legislature.

Sec. 2. In the event the issuance of such bonds is authorized by the qualified voters of the state, the sum of $67,500, or so much thereof as shall be found necessary, is authorized to be appropriated from the general fund of the state to be expended by it to carry out the provisions of this Act and to pay all expenses incident to the sale and issuance of the bonds authorized herein. The amounts authorized to be appropriated by this section may be reimbursed to the general fund from the proceeds of the bond sale.

Sec. 3. The question of whether or not the bonds authorized herein shall be issued for the purposes herein provided, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state at the next state general
