

CHAPTER 38

AN ACT

Pertaining to the incurring of bonded indebtedness by public utility and school districts; amending Sections 49-2-23 and 49-2-24 ACLA 1949; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 147)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 49-2-23, ACLA, 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 49-2-23. Construction, Etc., of Public Utilities and School Facilities: Authority to Incur Bonded Indebtedness: Maximum Amount. Public utility and school districts in the State of Alaska, organized or which may be organized under the laws of the State are authorized to construct, improve, extend, better, repair, reconstruct, acquire, and operate any and all types of public utilities and improvements, school buildings and facilities connected therewith, respectively, under and in accordance with and to the full extent provided by the laws of said State relating to public utility and school districts in said State, and to incur bonded indebtedness and to issue negotiable bonds for any or all of said purposes: Provided, however, that no public utility or school district shall incur bonded indebtedness or issue its negotiable bonds to an amount which shall exceed 10 per centum of the aggregate value of the real and personal property within such district subject to taxation for such district.

Sec. 2. Section 49-2-24, ACLA 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 49-2-24. Submission of Proposal to Voters: Notice and Conduct of Election. No bonded indebtedness shall be incurred by any public utility or school district in the State of Alaska unless the proposal to incur such indebtedness be first submitted to the qualified electors of such district whose names appear on the last tax-assessment roll or record of such district for purposes of district taxation, at an election called for such purpose, and not less than a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor thereof. Not less than twenty days' notice of any such election shall be given by posting notices of the same in three conspicuous places within the district, one of which shall be posted at the front door of the United States post office therein, if there be a United States post office within such district. The registration for such election, the manner of conducting the same, the form of ballot, and the canvass of the returns shall be prescribed by the governing body of such district.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

CHAPTER 39

AN ACT

Providing for ratification of prior bond issues of municipal corporations, public utility districts and school districts; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 148)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Ratification of Prior Bond Issues of Municipal Corporations, Public

Utility Districts and School Districts. All bonds which have heretofore been issued by any municipal corporation or any public utility district or any school district in the State of Alaska and all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds and the sale, execution, and delivery thereof are validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed, notwithstanding any defects or irregularities in such proceedings. Said bonds heretofore issued and sold are declared to be and shall be in the actual form in which such bonds have been issued and shall be the binding and legal obligations of the municipal corporation or public utility district or school district issuing the same.

Sec. 2. Effective Date. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

CHAPTER 40

AN ACT

Relating to defrauding general hospitals; providing penalty therefor; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 275)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. For the purposes of this Act, a "general hospital" means a hospital which offers its services to the public and which receives, to the extent its capacity and facilities permit and in accordance with the rules and regulations established by it, all patients as they apply.

Sec. 2. Any person who requests and receives hospital care including board, room, surgical care, medical care, or related services or drugs or other medication, or any combination thereof, from any general hospital, with the intent to not pay the amounts due and the amounts which become due for one or more of such items, and any person who obtains credit from any general hospital for one or more of such items by intentionally giving and furnishing false information as to name, address, employment or property unless all such items furnished are fully paid for by such person, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 3. The departure of any patient from any general hospital without such patient making or offering to make arrangements with hospital officials or office personnel to pay at a later date for the services rendered or items furnished, is evidence of intent not to pay for the same.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of every hospital in the State of Alaska to post a printed copy of this Act in a conspicuous place in each room occupied by patients and in the lobby of said hospital, and no conviction may be had under this Act until it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that the provisions of this section have been substantially complied with by said hospital.

Sec. 5. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved March 21, 1960
