CHAPTER 85

AN ACT

Relating to jurisdiction over juveniles; amending Sec. 19, Ch. 184, SLA 1959; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 106)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 19, Ch. 184, SLA 1959 is amended by adding a new paragraph (9) to read:

(9) For cases involving minors under the age of eighteen years and arising under the provisions of Ch. 145, SLA 1957 as amended, when the minor is in a condition or surroundings dangerous or injurious to the welfare of the minor or others which requires immediate action, and such action by a district magistrate is not practicable because of time or distance. Any action by a deputy magistrate remains in effect only until a hearing regarding the custody of the minor is held by the district magistrate. Any action by the deputy magistrate is subject to the review of, and may at any time be rescinded by, the district magistrate.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 14, 1961

CHAPTER 86

AN ACT

Relating to and prohibiting false, deceptive and misleading advertising; providing for enforcement and criminal penalties; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 123)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly publish, disseminate or display, or cause directly or indirectly, to be published, disseminated or displayed in any manner or by any means, including solicitation or dissemination by mail, telephone or door-to-door contacts, any false, deceptive or misleading advertising with actual knowledge of the facts which render the advertising false, deceptive or misleading, for any business, trade or commercial purpose or for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the public to purchase, consume, lease, dispose of, utilize or sell any property or service, or to enter into any obligation or transaction relating thereto; provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to any radio or television broadcasting station which broadcasts, or to any publisher, printer or distributor of any newspaper, magazine, billboard or other advertising medium who publishes, prints, or distributes such advertising in good faith without actual knowledge of its false, deceptive or misleading character.

Sec. 2. The attorney general or his representative may bring an action in the superior court to restrain and prevent any person from violating any provision of this Act.

Sec. 3. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of Sec. 1 of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than ninety days or by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by both.

Sec. 4. Any person who violates any order or injunction issued pursuant to this Act shall be subject to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than ninety days or both.

Sec. 5. In the enforcement of this Act the attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice deemed in violation of this Act, from any person engaging in, or who has engaged in such act or practice. Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the judicial district in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business.

Sec. 6. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 14, 1961

CHAPTER 87

AN ACT

Relating to exemptions from execution; amending paragraph First, Sec. 55-9-78, ACLA 1949, as last amended by Sec. 1, Ch. 65, SLA 1957; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 129)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Paragraph First, Sec. 55-9-78, ACLA 1949, as last amended by Sec. 1, Ch. 65, SLA 1957, is amended to read:

First. The earnings of the judgment debtor, for his personal services rendered at any time within thirty days next preceding the levy of execution or attachment, to the amount of Three Hundred Fifty Dollars when he is the head of a family, and the amount of Two Hundred Dollars in the event he is a single man and when it appears by the debtor's affidavit or otherwise that such earnings are necessary for his use or for the use of his family, supported in whole or in part by his labor; provided, that any money received on account on earnings during the thirty-day period hereinabove mentioned and prior to the levy of the execution or attachment, shall be charged against the exemption herein mentioned, and the amount of exemption shall be reduced accordingly; it being the intention of the Act to provide an exemption to the wage earner of not to exceed Three Hundred Fifty Dollars when the wage earner is the head of a family or not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars in the event he is a single man in every thirty-day period prior to the levy of attachment or execution. The masculine shall be deemed to include the feminine.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 14, 1961
