HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 31

Relating to continued employment of civilian personnel on Clear Project in Alaska.

Be It Resolved by the House in Second Legislature, First Session Assembled:

WHEREAS, there are approximately 750 civilian employees on the Ballistics Missile Early Warning System Project at Clear, Alaska, most of whom are trained and competent men after two years of service; and

WHEREAS, it has been reported that in 1962 there are plans to have this operation taken over by a branch of the military service; and

WHEREAS, during this period of recession in Alaska the impact of loss of work by 750 civilians would be of great economic harm to the railbelt area in Alaska;

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives in Second Legislature, First Session assembled, that the Federal Government, unless security measures are involved, continue to use civilian employees on the Ballistics Missile Early
