(f) In case of a vacancy in a district committee, it shall be filled for the unexpired term by the district committee of the party concerned, unless otherwise provided in the party rules. In case of a vacancy in the state central committee, it shall be filled for the unexpired term by the state central committee of the party concerned, unless otherwise provided in the party rules. In case of a vacancy in the office of national committeeman or committeewoman, it shall be filled for the unexpired term by the state central committee, unless otherwise provided in the party rules.

(g) District and state central committees may, if authorized by their respective party rules, elect a chairman from outside their membership.

(h) All applicable existing provisions of law relating to elections shall apply to the election of members of district and state central committee members.

Sec. 2. The recall provisions of the election code shall apply to elected members of the district and central committees, and to the national committeeman and national committeewoman, except that the petitions for recall shall be signed only by those persons who have registered a party preference for the party concerned at the preceding primary election. Only those persons who have registered a party preference for the party concerned shall be eligible to vote in such recall election.

AN ACT

Relating to the transfer of state lands within the present boundaries of first class cities; amending Art. III, Ch. 169, SLA 1959, as amended by Chs. 61 and 155, SLA 1960; and providing for an effective date.

(C.S.H.B. 239)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Art. III, Ch. 169, SLA 1959, as amended by Chs. 61 and 155, SLA 1960, is amended to add a new Sec. 12 to read:

Sec. 12. State Lands to Be Transferred to Cities. Any city of the first class may apply in the manner prescribed by the director, within five years from the effective date of this Act, for a conveyance to the city of all surplus state lands located within the present boundaries of the city. "Surplus state lands" means all land owned by the state which is not presently used or for which there is no anticipated use by the state for governmental purposes. The director shall promulgate reasonable regulations governing the filing and processing of applications and the execution of the conveyance to assure the prompt, orderly, and simple transfer of title from the state to the cities within five years of the effective date of this Act. Upon receipt of an application properly filed, the director shall convey the state lands to the city.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Became law without signature May 9, 1962
