CHAPTER 47

AN ACT

Pertaining to revenue bonds of the University of Alaska; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 366)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 5, Ch. 56, SLA 1961, is hereby amended to read:

Sec. 5. For the purpose of providing part or all of the money necessary to acquire, construct, and equip the improvements, the issuance and sale of revenue bonds of the University in the total principal sum of not to exceed $6,750,000 (herein called the Bonds) is hereby authorized. The principal of and interest on the Bonds shall be paid out of and secured by the money required in Sec. 3 of this Act to be paid into the Revenue Fund and out of any other source which the legislature may authorize to be pledged to such payment.

The Board shall adopt the resolution or resolutions and prepare all other documents and proceedings necessary for the issuance, sale, and delivery of the Bonds or any part or series thereof. The resolution or resolutions shall fix the principal amount, denomination or denominations, date, maturities, place or places of payment, rights of redemption if any, terms, form, conditions, and covenants of the Bonds or each part or series thereof, and the date and manner of sale thereof.

The Board, in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the Bonds or any part or series thereof, may provide conditions which must be complied with before the rest of the Bonds and any additional revenue bonds which the legislature may authorize the University to issue may be issued on a parity with the Bonds then being issued.

The Board shall create one or more special bond redemption funds of the University for paying and securing the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds and any other revenue bonds which the legislature may authorize the University to issue. Such bond redemption fund or funds shall be trust funds for such purposes and shall be at all times set apart from all other funds of the University. All issues or parts or series of revenue bonds of the University issued on a parity with each other shall be payable out of the same bond redemption fund.

The Board, on behalf of the University, may obligate and bind the University to set aside and pay into such bond redemption fund or funds any part or parts of, or all of, or a fixed proportion of, or a fixed amount of the money in the Revenue Fund, sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds and all other revenue bonds of the University which may be issued on a parity with the Bonds or any part or series thereof as the same shall become due, and, if determined necessary, to maintain adequate reserves to secure such payment. Such bond redemption fund or funds shall be drawn upon solely for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the Bonds and any such additional revenue bonds, and the Bonds and any such additional revenue bonds shall not constitute a general obligation of the State of Alaska or the University.

Sec. 2. Sec. 7, Ch. 56, SLA 1961, is hereby amended to read:

Sec. 7. The owner and holder of any Bond or the trustee for the owners and holders of the Bonds or any part or series thereof may by mandamus or other appropriate proceedings in the superior court require and compel the transferring, setting aside, and payment of money and the enforcement of all of the terms, conditions, and covenants as provided in this Act and in the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the Bonds or any part or series thereof.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 2, 1962

CHAPTER 48

AN ACT

Authorizing the establishment of a temporary seat of government for the state; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 368)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Whenever, due to an emergency resulting from the effects of enemy attack or an imminent enemy attack, it becomes imprudent, inexpedient, or impossible to conduct the affairs of state government at the normal location of the state capital, the governor shall, as often as the exigencies of the situation require, declare by proclamation an emergency temporary location or locations for the seat of government at such place or places, within or without this state, which would not normally be considered military target sites and which he may deem advisable under the circumstances. He shall take such action and issue such orders as may be necessary for an orderly transition to such emergency temporary location or locations. The temporary location or locations shall remain the emergency seat of government until the emergency is declared to be ended by the governor and the seat of government is returned to its normal location.

Sec. 2. During the time the seat of government remains at the emergency temporary location or locations, all official acts now or hereafter required by law to be performed at the seat of government by an officer, agency, department, or authority of this state, including the convening and meeting of the legislature in regular or special session, shall be valid and binding when performed at such emergency temporary location or locations as if performed at the permanent location of the seat of government.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 2, 1962

CHAPTER 49

AN ACT

Providing that all persons are entitled to the free and equal enjoyment of accommodations, amusements, conveyances, and other business establishments; amending Secs. 20-1-3 and 20-1-4, ACLA 1949, as amended by Ch. 21, SLA 1949; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 8)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 20-1-3, ACLA 1949, is amended to read:

Sec. 20-1-3. Persons Entitled to Full and Equal Accommodations, Facilities, and Privileges. All persons within the jurisdiction of the State of Alaska shall be entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of public inns, restaurants, eating houses, hotels,
