

with the district magistrate for the district within which the land is situated.

b. Additions to an established controlled livestock district may be made under the same procedures set forth for creating such districts provided they have a minimum of 160 acres and are contiguous to the established district.

c. Portions of a district or an entire district may be abolished or eliminated if 60 percent of the owners and lessees of cultivated land within the district or the area affected petition for the abolishment, in which event the procedure outlined herein for formation of a controlled livestock district shall be followed for dissolution.

Sec. 3. Sec. 33-3-54, ACLA 1949, is amended to read:

Sec. 33-3-54. Notice, Hearing, and Order. Upon receipt of a petition for the establishment of a controlled livestock district, the magistrate shall set a time for hearing thereon not less than 30 days thereafter. Notice of the time and place of said hearing and its purpose shall be posted in not less than three conspicuous public places within the proposed district for a period of at least 30 days prior to the hearing. Included in the places posted shall be any post office within the area concerned or, if there be none, then the post office nearest the area. Upon hearing, it shall be necessary to prove only that the requisite number of signatures have been procured upon such petition, and that the posting of the notices of the hearing has been done as in this paragraph required. Upon establishment of this fact it shall be the duty of the district magistrate to enter an order creating and establishing the controlled livestock district as therein described, and to certify to the clerk of the superior court for the judicial division a copy of the findings and order therein.

Sec. 4. Sec. 33-3-55, ACLA 1949, is amended to read:

Sec. 33-3-55. Liability for Damages: Lien. The owner of land within a controlled livestock district, whether the land is fenced or unfenced, (a) shall be entitled to recover from the owner or person having custody and control of any domestic animal for any injury done by a domestic animal which grazes or runs at large within a controlled livestock district contrary to the provisions of this Act, and (b) shall have a lien upon such domestic animal for the amount of the damage done. Provided, however, that no claim for damages in excess of $50 shall be allowed against any one animal for any one trespass.

Sec. 5. Sec. 33-3-56, ACLA 1949, is amended to read:

Sec. 33-3-56. Impounding of Animals Running at Large. The owner of any land within a controlled livestock district may impound any domestic animal trespassing upon his land and keep the same until damages together with reasonable charges for keeping and feeding the same are paid. Within 24 hours after impounding any animal, the person impounding shall give notice in writing to the owner or claimant of such animal if the owner is known, or file a notice of such impounding with the district magistrate for the districts and post a copy of said notice in a public place nearest to the enclosure of the impounded animal if the owner is unknown. If the owner or claimant fails to claim such animal and pay the reasonable charges for keeping and feeding and damages and costs within five days after receipt or posting of such impounding notice, the said animal shall be dealt with as in the case of an estray.

Sec. 6. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

CHAPTER 83

AN ACT

Relating to the Travel Regulation Act of 1957; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 273)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 7, Ch. 60, SLA 1957, is repealed and re-enacted to read:

Sec. 7. Travel Costs: Travel Outside the State. (a) The Department of Administration shall not pay an official or employee for per diem or transportation costs unless his travel is clearly necessary to benefit the state.

(b) The Department of Administration may not reimburse an official or employee nor may it pay for more than the lowest tourist class fare for the most direct route unless (1) tourist class accommodation is not available; (2) waiting for tourist class accommodation would occasion a delay harmful to the state; or (3) the Department of Administration finds that travel by tourist class accommodation is not in the best interest of the state, and authorizes other accommodation. When the Department of Administration authorizes more expensive travel under (3) of this subsection, it shall file a justification for that authorization with the travel voucher. When fares other than tourist class are authorized under this subsection, the Department of Administration may not reimburse the official or employee nor may it pay for more than the lowest first class fare available.

(c) Officials and employees are authorized to travel only the least number of days necessary to transact the business involved, to secure return passage, and to return.

(d) Every official and employee shall, unless otherwise authorized by law to travel outside the state, obtain prior approval for travel outside the state from the head of his department or from his immediate supervisor, or from the Department of Administration if he is not within a department or is not under the direct supervision of an official or supervisor. If any employee deviates materially from the travel authorized under this section, he must obtain approval for the deviation from the person who approved the travel before the Department of Administration may reimburse him for his travel.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.
