AN ACT

Relating to amending, repealing, or citing the Alaska Statutes; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 293)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Pending their formal adoption as the law of the state, the Alaska Statutes as described and adopted as prima facie evidence of the law by Ch. 16, SLA 1962, may be cited, amended, or repealed.

Sec. 2. A section of the Alaska Statutes expressly amended by the legislature, including the entire context set out in the amendatory Act, shall, as amended, constitute the law.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on January 1, 1963.

Approved April 11, 1962

CHAPTER 85

AN ACT

Relating to the concealment of merchandise in mercantile establishments; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 294)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Whoever, without authority, wilfully conceals upon or about his person the goods or merchandise of any retail business establishment, not theretofore purchased by the person, while still upon the premises of the retail business establishment, with intent to deprive the owner of such goods or merchandise, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both. Goods or merchandise found concealed upon or about the person and which have not theretofore been purchased by the person shall be prima facie evidence of a wilful concealment.

Sec. 2. Any person found guilty of a second or subsequent offense of wilful concealment of goods as defined in Section 1 of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 11, 1962

CHAPTER 86

AN ACT

Relating to a curfew for minors; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 255)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. The provisions of any curfew ordinance enacted by a city or village of any class concerning minors shall be imposed in the total area within 20 miles of the limits of that city or village. In the event a given area lies within 20 miles of two or more cities with conflicting curfew ordinances, the provisions of the curfew ordinance of the city having the largest
