

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 20

Relating to a study of methods of revising the Alaska Administrative Code.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS Alaska's administrative regulations comprise an important body of law; and

WHEREAS, in several areas of law, such as natural resources, health and welfare, education, and fish and game, the regulations affect the public more directly than the statutes in those areas do; and

WHEREAS administrative regulations are compiled into the Alaska Administrative Code; and

WHEREAS the code is poorly drafted, has no usable index, is confusingly organized, and is printed on paper and with type that is hard to read;

BE IT RESOLVED that the legislative council is directed to study alternative methods for and costs of revising the Alaska Administrative Code and to submit a report on its study to the members of the legislature at the beginning of the 1964 legislative session.

Passed by the House March 23, 1963.

Passed by the Senate March 28, 1963.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

Relating to the inauguration of a U. S. Savings Stamp program in the schools of the state.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS leaders in finance, industry, and education agree that this country needs more savings of all kinds to assure our continuing growth and prosperity; and

WHEREAS the U. S. Treasury-sponsored school Savings Stamp program, which has enjoyed nation-wide success in every state in the Union except Alaska, is one good way of teaching thrift to aid in this accumulation of greater national savings; and

WHEREAS the teaching of thrift as character-building training for youngsters is properly within the province of the classroom; and

WHEREAS schools can and should teach thrift as a benefit, not only to individual students, but to the Nation; and

WHEREAS there is now a U. S. Savings Bonds office in Alaska which will aid in the inauguration of a school Savings Stamp program in Alaska;

BE IT RESOLVED that the state Department of Education is urged to encourage the inauguration of a U. S. Savings Stamp program in the schools in the State of Alaska; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the state Board of Education and the state director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department.

Passed by the House April 2, 1963.

Passed by the Senate April 5, 1963.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 30

Relating to the death of Marie Drake.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS God in his wisdom has seen fit to call to her eternal rest Marie Drake, one of the most distinguished citizens of the State of Alaska; and

WHEREAS Marie Drake was for many years connected with the school system of the Territory of Alaska, during which period of service she traveled to some of the most remote places in the Territory; and
