HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 1

Relating to a study and public hearings on the business license tax and other taxes on business.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS the Legislative Council, in January 1963, published a report on the Alaska Business License Tax for the information of the Legislature and the public; and

WHEREAS the report has raised a number of questions about the various taxes levied directly on business in Alaska, particularly in regard to the equity of levies among different types of business enterprise; and

WHEREAS additional information is needed from public and private sources before the Legislature can evaluate the business tax structure of the state;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Council is directed to conduct public interim hearings on the business license tax report and the general subject of equitable taxation of business, and to submit its recommendations and suggested legislation to the second regular session of the Third Legislature in 1964.

Passed by the House February 11, 1963.

Passed by the Senate April 6, 1963.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6

Relating to a high school course in fisheries in coastal areas of the state.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS the harvesting of fish and seafood products continues to be a vital factor in the economy of the state; and

WHEREAS the high school curriculum of the state does not offer any course on the subject of fisheries; and

WHEREAS the State of Maine offers its high school students a practical course in marine biology and other aspects of the fishing industry in recognition of the importance of that industry to that state and its people;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Governor is requested to have the Department of Education, with the cooperation of the University of Alaska and of the Department of Fish and Game, investigate the feasibility of offering a high school course in fisheries to students residing in the coastal areas of the state and report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature as soon as possible.

Passed by the House February 22, 1963

Passed by the Senate February 26, 1963

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14

Relating to a report on and a revision of the municipal code of the state.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS the bulk of the state law relating to cities is a product of the territorial period and offers a disjointed body of law, which does not serve the best interest of the state and its municipalities; and

WHEREAS a study and a suggested bulk formal revision of the municipal code
