

(5) In making a conveyance to an occupant, the home rule cities and cities of the first class shall include as a part of the tract conveyed and in addition to the occupied or developed lands, such additional tide and submerged lands as are reasonably necessary in the opinion of the governing body of the home rule cities and cities of the first class for the occupant's use and enjoyment of the occupied or developed land, but the conveyance shall not include any area which would unjustly deprive an occupant of adjoining lands from reasonable use and enjoyment of those lands or which, if developed, will interfere with navigation.

(6) Each home rule city and city of the first class receiving conveyances shall by ordinance provide for reasonable regulations governing the filing and processing of applications, publication of notices, and the adjudication of disputes between claimants by the governing body of the home rule cities and cities of the first class. A party aggrieved by its determination may appeal to the superior court.

(7) When no preference right has been granted to purchase or lease tidelands, the home rule cities and cities of the first class may sell or lease the tidelands conveyed to them, and may impose terms or conditions for the sale or lease. Such terms and conditions shall include such reservations of rights of way as are necessary to provide reasonable access to public waters.

Sec. 2. AS 38.05.320(d) is amended by adding a new paragraph to read:

(8) For the purposes of this Act "home rule cities and cities of the first class" do not include a borough.
