

STATE OF ALASKA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
JUNEAU

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 25

WHEREAS, under Ch. 109, SLA 1955 (AS 18.60.030) the Department of Labor was charged with functions relating to planning and executing safety programs designed to reduce accidents in every field of activity; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 19 transferred part of these functions, i.e., those relating to industrial safety of all oil and gas exploration, drilling and production operations within the State of Alaska to the Department of Natural Resources; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Natural Resources promulgated regulations pursuant to Executive Order No. 19 entitled "Petroleum Safety Regulations" (11 Alaska Administrative Code 2401); and

WHEREAS, traditional functions and position classification requirements of the Department of Labor are established to further industrial safety; and

WHEREAS, because such functions and personnel requirements exist within the Department of Labor, the said regulations relating to industrial safety of oil and gas exploration, drilling and production, and any future rules and regulations will be efficiently, effectively and economically administered and enforced by the Department of Labor; therefore

Under the authority of sec. 23, Art. III, Constitution of the State of Alaska, I order that Executive Order No. 19 be and hereby is withdrawn and that the functions relating to industrial safety of all oil and gas exploration, drilling and production operations within the State of Alaska be and hereby are reassigned to the Department of Labor as originally provided for in sec. 5, Ch. 109, SLA 1955 (now AS 18.60.030).

DATED at Juneau, Alaska, this 3rd day of January, 1964.

Effective June 3, 1964
