

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has approved the Alaska Omnibus Act designed to aid Alaska in recovering from the effects of the earthquake of March 27, 1964; and

WHEREAS, Section 57 of the Alaska Omnibus Act provides for federal grants of $5,500,000 to match, on a fifty-fifty basis, money to be provided by the State of Alaska to pay the costs of retiring or adjusting mortgage obligations on private homes which were severely damaged or destroyed in the earthquake and subsequent seismic waves of March 27, 1964; and

WHEREAS, under provisions of the Alaska Omnibus Act, the State is presently formulating a plan for retirement and adjustment of mortgages on private homes which were severely damaged or destroyed in the March 27, 1964 earthquake and subsequent sea waves; and

WHEREAS, $5,500,000 of existing disaster authorizations must be appropriated by the Legislature to implement Section 57 of the Alaska Omnibus Act;

NOW THEREFORE, under the authority of Article II, Section 9, Alaska Constitution and AS 24.05.100 (1), I, WILLIAM A. EGAN, Governor of Alaska, do hereby call the Alaska State Legislature into special session at 10 A.M. on August 31, 1964, to consider legislation appropriating state funds to match federal grants of $5,500,000 on a fifty-fifty basis, to pay costs of retiring and adjusting mortgages pursuant to Section 57 of the Alaska Omnibus Act.
