CHAPTER 32

AN ACT

Relating to appeals from Workmen's Compensation Board decisions; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 70)

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. AS 23.30.125(c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) If not in accordance with law, a compensation order may be suspended or set aside, in whole or in part, through injunction proceedings in the superior court brought by a party in interest against the board and all other parties to the proceedings before the board. The payment of the amounts required by an award may not be stayed pending final decision in the proceeding unless upon application for an interlocutory injunction the court on hearing, after not less than three days' notice to the parties in interest and the board, allows the stay of payment, in whole or in part, where irreparable damage would otherwise ensue to the employer. The order of the court allowing a stay shall contain a specific finding, based upon evidence submitted to the court and identified by reference to it, that irreparable damage would result to the employer, and specifying the nature of the damage.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.
