AN ACT

Relating to the incorporation of villages; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 77)

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. AS 29.25.030 is amended to read:

Sec. 29.25.030. Villages Authorized to Incorporate. (a) A village may become incorporated if it

(1) is not included in, or part of, or within 10 miles of an incorporated city, or within five miles of an independent school district, except as provided in (b) of this section; and

(2) has at least 25 permanent inhabitants 19 years of age or older residing within a radius of three miles of a designated centrally located point or structure.

(b) An exception may be made to (a) (1) of this section if the superior court of the judicial district in which the village sought to be incorporated finds that although a village is within 10 miles of an incorporated city, or within five miles of an independent school district, geographical obstacles to transportation and communication make normal social, cultural and commercial exchange difficult and impractical between the village and the city or school district.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.
