

LAWS OF ALASKA

—1967—

Source

FSS-SB 13

Chapter No.

17

AN ACT

To provide additional benefits under the Alaska Employment Security Act; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 23.20 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 23.20.352. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS. (a) The legislature, in keeping with the purpose and policy of the Alaska Employment Security Act, notwithstanding the provisions of secs. 350(c) and 520(4) of this chapter, declares that additional benefits shall be paid to individuals in Alaska under conditions set out in this section.

(b) The additional benefits provided in this section shall be paid only for a week of unemployment subject to the following conditions, qualifications and restrictions;

(1) the claimant has made a claim for the additional benefits provided by this section;

(2) the week claimed begins on or after October 1, 1967 and ends no later than August 17, 1968;

(3) subsequent to July 1, 1967, the claimant has

(A) an unexpired benefit year and exhausts his maximum benefits provided under sec. 350(c) of this chapter; or

(B) a benefit year which expires and he cannot meet the qualifying wage requirements for further benefits under sec. 350(a) and (b) of this chapter;

(4) with respect to the week being claimed the claimant has no rights under any other section of this chapter or under any other federal or state unemployment compensation law;

Chapter 17

(5) a claimant's weekly benefit amount under this section shall be the same as his weekly benefit amount (including allowances for dependents) which was last payable to him under this chapter before making his first claim under this section, less deductions for remuneration payable to him (if any) as provided in sec. 360 of this chapter;

(6) a claimant's maximum potential additional benefits shall be equal to at least one-half of the claimant's benefits under his last benefit entitlement under this chapter before making his first claim under this section; maximum potential benefits for a claimant shall be rounded to the next higher multiple of the weekly benefit amount if the claimant's computed dollar amount is not a whole multiple of the weekly benefit amount;

(7) claimants shall not be required to serve a waiting period week before the receipt of benefits under this section; and

(8) the initial claim and weekly continued claims for additional benefits under this section must be filed in the state.

(c) Except where inconsistent with the provisions of this section, the terms and conditions of this chapter shall apply to claims filed under this section for additional benefits and to the payment of additional benefits.

(d) The commissioner of labor is authorized to make rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

* Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without approval.