Chapter No.

107

AN ACT

Authorizing the Department of Public Safety to promulgate regulations regarding the acquisition and exchange of criminal information; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 18.65.060 is amended to read:

Sec. 18.65.060. PEACE OFFICERS TO COOPERATE. (a) All police officers in the state or any municipality or subdivision shall cooperate with the Department of Public Safety in creating and maintaining its files, and all information shall be classified upon standard forms and kept available for the detection of crime and the identification of criminals.

(b) The Department of Public Safety may adopt regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, provided that regulations proposed by the department shall be submitted to the presiding officer of each house on the day the house convenes. The legislature has 60 days of a regular session, or a full session if of shorter duration to disapprove the proposed regulations. Unless disapproved by a special concurrent resolution introduced in either house, concurred in by a majority of the members in each house, the regulations become effective at a date to be designated by the department.

* Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without approval.
