Chapter No.

30

AN ACT

Relating to service by district judges, superior court judges, and supreme court justices; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

- * Section 1. AS 22.05.130 is amended to read:

Sec. 22.05.130. RESTRICTIONS. A supreme court justice while holding office may not practice law, nor engage in the conduct of any other profession, vocation or business for profit or compensation, which conduct would interfere with his performance of his judicial duties, nor may he hold office in a political party, or hold any other office or position of profit under the United States, the state, or its political subdivisions. A supreme court justice filing for another elective public office forfeits his judicial position.

- * Sec. 2. AS 22.10.180 is amended to read:

Sec. 22.10.180. RESTRICTIONS. A superior court judge while holding office may not practice law, nor engage in the conduct of any other profession, vocation or business for profit or compensation, which conduct would interfere with his performance of his judicial duties, nor may he hold office in a political party, or hold any other office or position of profit under the United States, the state or its political subdivisions. A superior court judge filing for another elective public office forfeits his judicial position.

- * Sec. 3. AS 22.15.210(a) is amended to read:

(a) A district judge, while holding office, may not practice law, nor engage in the conduct of any other profession, vocation or business for profit or compensation, which conduct would interfere with his performance of his judicial duties, nor may he hold office in a political party, or hold any other office or position of profit under the United States, the state or its political subdivisions, except that, with the approval of the chief justice of the Alaska Supreme Court, the district judge may be appointed deputy clerk of the superior court and may hold the office of United States magistrate. A district judge who files for another elective public office forfeits his judicial position.

* Sec. 4. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without approval.
