Chapter No.

133

AN ACT

Relating to changes in transportation tariffs.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 42.10.290(a) is amended to read:

(a) Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change may be made by a common carrier in its rates, classifications, rules, regulations, or practices or in a contract or agreement relating to a rate, classification, rule, regulation, or practice except after 45 days notice to the commission and 30 days notice to the public. Notice shall be given to the commission by filing with the commission and keeping open for public inspection the revised tariff provisions which shall plainly indicate the changes to be made in the schedules then in force and the time when the changes will go into effect. The commission shall prescribe means by regulation whereby notice is given to the public before or no later than 15 days after the filing which shall be reasonably adequate to notify customers affected by the filing. The commission, for good cause shown, may allow changes to take effect on less than 45 days notice to the commission or 30 days notice to the public under such conditions as the commission may prescribe.

* Sec. 2. AS 42.15.191(a) is amended to read:

(a) Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change may be made by a common carrier in its rates, classifications, rules, regulations or practices or in a contract or agreement relating to a rate, classification, rule, regulation or practice except after 45 days' notice to the commission and 30 days' notice to the public. Notice shall be given to the commission by filing with the commission and keeping open for public inspection the revised tariff provisions which shall plainly indicate the changes to be made in the schedules then in force and the time when the changes will go into effect. The commission shall prescribe means by regulation whereby notice is given to the public before or no later than 15 days after the filing which shall be reasonably adequate to notify customers affected by the filing. The commission, for good cause shown, may allow changes to take effect on less than 45 days' notice to the commission or 30 days' notice to the public under conditions the commission prescribes.

* Sec. 3. AS 02.05.140(b) is amended to read:

(b) Extent and manner of filing. Tariffs shall be filed and made available to the public as provided in (f) of this section for changed tariffs as set out there, otherwise to the extent and in the manner required by regulations of the commission. The form of every tariff shall be prescribed by the commission. The commission shall prescribe a form as nearly similar as possible to the form of tariffs required of air carriers by the Civil Aeronautics Board or other agency of the federal government under the Act of Congress entitled "Federal Aviation Act of 1958," and acts amending or supplementing it. The rates, fares and charges shown in a tariff shall be stated in terms of lawful money of the United States.

* Sec. 4. AS 02.05.140(f) is repealed and re-enacted to read:

(f) Notice of change in tariff. Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change may be made in a rate, fare, or charge, or a classification, rule, regulation, or practice affecting the rate, fare, or charge or the value of the service thereunder, specified in any effective tariff of a certificated carrier, air taxi operator or carrier exempt under sec. 50(b) of this chapter, except after 45 days notice to the commission and 30 days notice to the public. Notice shall be given to the commission by filing with the commission and keeping open for public inspection the revised tariff provisions which shall plainly indicate the changes to be made in the schedules then in force and the time when the changes will go into effect. The commission shall prescribe means by regulation whereby notice is given to the public before or no later than 15 days after the filing which shall be reasonably adequate to notify customers affected by the filing. The commission, for good cause shown, may allow changes to take effect on less than 45 days notice to the commission or 30 days notice to the public under such conditions as the commission may prescribe.
