Chapter No.

40

AN ACT

Relating to conflicts of interest; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 39.50.090(b) and (c) are amended to read:

(b) No person may offer or pay to a public official, and no public official may solicit or receive money for legislative advice or assistance, or for advice or assistance given in the course of the public official's employment or relating to his employment. However, this prohibition does not apply to a chairman or member of a municipal body, state commission or board if the subject matter of the legislative advice or assistance is not related directly to the function of the municipal body, state commission or board, nor does this prohibition apply to a municipal officer when giving legislative advice or legislative assistance; this exception from the general prohibition does not apply to one whose service on a state commission or board constitutes him a full-time state employee under AS 39.

(c) No public official may represent a client before a state agency for a fee. However, this prohibition does not apply to a municipal officer, or chairman or member of a municipal body, state commission or board except with regard to representation before his own commission or board; this exception from the general prohibition does not apply to one whose service on the commission or board constitutes him a full-time state employee under AS 39.

* Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act are retroactive to April 1, 1975.

* Sec. 3. This Act takes effect immediately in accordance with AS 01.10.070(c).

Approved by governor: May 1, 1975
Actual effective date: May 2, 1975
