HB 195 am S

Chapter No.

35

AN ACT

Relating to Alaska National Guard active duty training.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. It is the intent of this Act to acquaint Army National Guard units in the state with unfamiliar urban and rural areas and conditions so that a broader base of unit experience and knowledge will be developed, thereby rendering them more capable of serving and protecting the citizens of the state.

* Sec. 2. AS 26.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 26.05.235. ACTIVE DUTY TRAINING SITES. Unless prohibited by federal regulation, no less than once every two training years, each unit of the Alaska Army National Guard shall train for annual active duty training at a site other than its regular base training site. Every effort shall be made to select a training site in a different type of environment from that of the regular base training site.

Approved by governor: April 9, 1976
Actual effective date: July 8, 1976
