AN ACT

Relating to the status of women in Alaska.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. The State Commission on Human Rights shall undertake a preliminary investigation into the status of women in Alaskan society. The commission shall specifically investigate the fields of public and private employment, education, health, and the justice system and identify in its report any barriers to full equality for women which it discovers. The report shall also identify any specific areas where further study or data is needed to determine whether barriers to full equality for women do exist.

* Sec. 2. The commission report shall be submitted to the legislature not later than January 30, 1977.

Approved by governor: May 26, 1976
Actual effective date: August 24, 1976
