Relating to End Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Month.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS Alaska, as a national leader in the effort to secure dignity and equality for women, has engaged in legal reform, established a commission on the status of women, and provided funding for shelters for battered women and their children, batterer's counseling projects, rape crisis centers, and women's resource centers; and

WHEREAS continued support for this effort is necessary to assure the freedom and safety of women in Alaska; and

WHEREAS the governor has proclaimed May 1981 as End Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Month in Alaska and has called upon all citizens to help build a society in which women can be freed from terror and violent assault;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature joins the governor in proclaiming May 1981 as End Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Month and encourages the people of Alaska and communities and educational institutions in the state to observe this month with appropriate activities to help assure that women will be freed from domestic violence and sexual assault.
