Extending the life of the Blue Ribbon Commission on the State Personnel Act.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS in 1978 the legislature through Legislative Resolve No. 27 authorized the Legislative Council, in cooperation with the director of personnel, to form a "blue ribbon" commission to study the State Personnel Act; and

WHEREAS the commission was formed as authorized by the resolution, made its report to the First Session of the Eleventh Legislature, and, in response to the commission's request for additional time to study problems it had identified, was funded by the legislature for a second year; and

WHEREAS in 1980 the commission made its second report to the legislature, and the legislature through Legislative Resolve No. 38 authorized the commission to continue to perform the assignments made to it by 1978 Legislative Resolve No. 27; and

WHEREAS in 1981 the legislature, through Legislative Resolve No. 37, found that additional time was needed for the commission to complete the task to which it was assigned and authorized the commission to continue to perform its assignments until June 30, 1982; and

WHEREAS the commission has now identified problems relating to discrimination resulting from the State Personnel Act but is unable to adequately address those problems before June 30, 1982;

BE IT RESOLVED by the Alaska State Legislature that the Blue Ribbon Commission on the State Personnel Act is authorized to continue to perform the assignments made to it by 1978

Legislative Resolve No. 27 through June 30, 1983.
