Chapter No.

166

AN ACT

Relating to reimbursement for the cost of land clearing; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

THE ACT FOLLOWS ON PAGE 1, LINE 9

Approved by the Governor: July 11, 1984
Actual Effective Date: July 12, 1984

AN ACT

Relating to reimbursement for the cost of land clearing;
and providing for an effective date.

* Section 1. LAND CLEARING REIMBURSEMENT MORATORIUM. (a) A land owner who has contracted before January 1, 1984, with the Alaska Agricultural Action Council under AS 44.33.470(8) for reimbursement to the state of the cost of clearing, draining, and breaking of land, may be granted a moratorium up to three years on reimbursement payments by applying to the agriculture revolving loan fund board.

(b) A land owner may not qualify for a moratorium under (a) of this section unless at least 1,000 acres or 50 percent of the land owner's tillable acreage, whichever is less, is in production at the time of application for the moratorium and continues to remain in production during the moratorium granted under this subsection.

(c) In order to qualify for a moratorium under (a) of this section a land owner must, at the time of application for the moratorium, be in compliance with the development plan set out in the owner's contract and remain in compliance with the development plan during the moratorium.

(d) Payments of interest on a contract for reimbursement to the state of the cost of clearing, draining, and breaking of land are subject to a moratorium under (a) of this section but interest continues to accrue during the moratorium.

(e) A moratorium under (a) of this section may not be granted after July 1, 1987.

Chapter 166
