Relating to development and investment in the state by large out-of-state businesses.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS opportunities exist in the state for economic development and investment by large out-of-state business; and

WHEREAS these businesses can maximize their investment and development in the state by using the planning, design, construction, and management expertise of local businesses and people who are familiar with the unique demands of doing business in the state; and

WHEREAS large out-of-state businesses can also maximize their development and investment in the state by hiring local residents because they are familiar with demands of work in the state; and

WHEREAS the state would benefit from investment and development by large out-of-state businesses if these businesses hire local residents and cooperate in business ventures with local businesses;

BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives urges large, out-of-state businesses to consider participating in the economy of the state by investing and developing business in the state; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the House of Representatives encourages large out-of-state businesses to maximize their investment and development in the state by cooperating in business ventures with local businesses and by hiring local residents.
