Relating to the recognition of International Youth Year.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS the United Nations General Assembly has recognized the contribution of young people in shaping and designing the future of humanity by proclaiming 1985 to be International Youth Year; and

WHEREAS the objectives of International Youth Year are to heighten public awareness of the needs and aspirations of youth; to promote policies and programs that allow youth to be an integral part of social and economic development; and to foster among youth the ideals of peace, and mutual respect, and understanding among the people of this world; and

WHEREAS there are over 175,000 young people below 19 years of age in this state; and

WHEREAS this state has a wide range of ethnic residents as well as numerous visitors from a wide variety of foreign countries that allow Alaskan youth to experience rich cultural diversification; and

WHEREAS the state's commitment to broadening its economic relationship with Pacific Rim nations will result in frequent dialogues between Alaskans and foreign merchants and dignitaries;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature respectfully requests Alaskans everywhere to recognize the importance of youth through support of the goals and objectives of International Youth Year.
