7 (b) Notwithstanding AS 16.20.500 and the establishment of the 8 Redoubt Bay Critical Habitat Area under (a) of this section, egress
9 and ingress to and from private property within the Redoubt Bay Critical
10 Habitat Area shall be permitted through access corridors established 11 through agreement between the state and the private property
12 owners involved.

13 (c) The state may not acquire by eminent domain privately owned 14 land within the Redoubt Bay Critical Habitat Area but may acquire 15 privately owned land within the Redoubt Bay Critical Habitat Area by 16 purchase, exchange, or otherwise for inclusion in the Redoubt Bay
17 Critical Habitat Area.

18 (d) The department shall permit entry within the Redoubt Bay 19 Critical Habitat Area for the exploration and development of oil and 20 gas resources when it is compatible with the purposes for which the 21 critical habitat area is established. An oil and gas lease of state 22 land and existing oil and gas pipeline rights-of-way within the critical 23 habitat area are valid and continue in full force according to 24 their terms. The commissioner shall permit inspection and maintenance 25 activities necessary to ensure the integrity of oil and gas pipelines 26 on existing leases and pipeline rights-of-way in a manner that is 27 compatible with the purposes for which the Redoubt Bay Critical Habitat
28 Area was established.

29 (e) The department shall permit uses of the Redoubt Bay Critical

1 Habitat Area in a manner that is compatible with the purposes for 2 which the critical habitat area is established. The department shall 3 permit the following public uses to continue without further approval 4 by the department unless the department determines that the use is not 5 compatible with the purposes for which the Redoubt Bay Critical Habi-
6 tat Area is established:

7 (1) hunting, including subsistence hunting, trapping, and 8 subsistence, commercial, and sport fishing, including the continued
9 use of cabins for the purpose of hunting, trapping, and fishing;

10 (2) hiking, backpacking, and camping, including the use of 11 campfires;

12 (3) cross-country skiing, snowmachining, boating, and the 13 landing of aircraft; and

14 (4) other related uses that are temporary in duration and 15 have no foreseeable adverse effects on vegetation, drainage, soil
16 stability, or fish and game and their habitat.

17 (f) The Kenai Peninsula Borough shall establish a citizens'
18 advisory committee to work with the department and the Department of 19 Natural Resources and advise on the development of policies and regu-
20 lations that affect the Redoubt Bay Critical Habitat Area.

21 (g) Appointments to the citizens' advisory committee shall be 22 made by the Kenai Peninsula Borough and shall include representatives 23 from

24 (1) industry and commercial users including the oil and gas
25 industry, timber, mining, and commercial fishing;

26 (2) hunters, trappers, fishermen, cabin owners, and recrea-
27 tional users; and

28 (3) officials representing the Kenai Peninsula Borough.

29 * Sec. 3. This Act takes effect immediately under AS 01.10.070(c).
