Resolve No.

Requesting the Alaska Supreme Court to extend the stay in McDowell v. State.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS the legislature has been called into special session in an effort to resolve the subsistence priority crisis facing the state as a result of the decision in McDowell v. State, 785 P.2d 1 (Alaska 1989), and the legislature remains in session struggling with this difficult issue;

BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives respectfully requests the Alaska Supreme Court to extend the order staying the effect of its decision in McDowell v. State, 785 P.2d 1 (Alaska 1989), until the legislature completes its work on the subsistence priority issue and adjourns from the special session, and, if a measure is adopted, for at least five additional working days to enable the governor and the United States Department of the Interior to determine whether the legislation is consistent with the subsistence priority in 16 U.S.C. 3112 - 3115.

COPIES of this resolution shall be sent to the justices of the Alaska Supreme Court.
