Relating to Public Service Recognition Week.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS May 6 - 12, 1991, is being observed in this country as Public Service Recognition Week; and

WHEREAS Public Service Recognition Week provides an opportunity to thank public employees for their dedicated service and to inform citizens about the range and quality of the services provided by public employees; and

WHEREAS public employees work hard, are committed to excellence, and deserve to be recognized, encouraged, and appreciated; and

WHEREAS democracy depends on a professional, experienced, and expert civil service, and businesses benefit from excellence in government; and

WHEREAS public service should be valued and respected, and the youth of this country should be encouraged to pursue careers in public service;

BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives applauds the work of public employees in this country and urges the citizens of this state to observe May 6 - 12, 1991, as Public Service Recognition Week in order to honor public employees, to recognize the dedication, performance, and hard work of public employees, and to encourage young people to pursue careers in public service.
