1 YEARS AFTER RELEASE OF THE DEFENDANT FROM INCARCERATION
2 UNLESS FOR GOOD CAUSE SHOWN, THE COURT CONSIDERS IT
3 APPROPRIATE TO EXECUTE EARLIER]. Upon a showing of financial hardship,
4 the court (1) shall allow a person subject to a judgment entered under this subsection
5 to make payments under a payment schedule; (2) shall allow a person subject to a 6 judgment entered under this subsection to petition the court at any time for 7 remission, reduction, or deferral of the unpaid portion of the judgment; and (3) 8 may remit or reduce the balance owing on the judgment or change the method 9 of payment if the payment would impose manifest hardship on the person or the 10 person's immediate family. Payments made under this subsection shall be paid into 11 the state general fund.

12 * Sec. 2. REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE. The Alaska Supreme Court shall report to 13 the legislature not later than February 1, 1996, on the imposition of judgments for payment 14 of services of representation and court costs provided by AS 18.85.120(c). At a minimum, 15 the report must contain information, compiled from the effective date of this Act, concerning 16 the number of cases in which judgments have been entered for the payment of services of 17 representation and court costs, the total amount of judgments for payment of services of 18 representation and court costs imposed, the amount collected, the number of cases in which 19 judgments have been remitted or reduced, and the number of cases where payment schedules 20 have been established.

21 * Sec. 3. This Act takes effect immediately under AS 01.10.070(c).
