BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS, under art. II, sec. 10 of the state constitution, if the two houses of the legislature cannot agree on the time for adjournment, either house may certify the disagreement to the governor; and

WHEREAS, upon receipt of a certification of disagreement from one house, the governor may adjourn the legislature; and

WHEREAS the House of Representatives has completed its business and stands ready to adjourn, but cannot reach agreement with the Senate on the time for adjournment; and

WHEREAS the House members of the Eighteenth Alaska State Legislature desire to conclude the regular session in conformity with the constitution and laws of the state and the Uniform Rules of the Alaska State Legislature and without causing offense to our colleagues in the other body;

BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives, having concluded its business and being now ready to adjourn from the First Session of the Alaska State Legislature, certifies to Governor Walter J. Hickel under art. II, sec. 10 its disagreement with the Senate over the time of adjournment of the First Regular Session of the Eighteenth Alaska State Legislature; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that the House of Representatives respectfully requests the governor to exercise the authority given under art. II, sec. 10 of the state constitution and to immediately adjourn the First Regular Session of the Eighteenth Alaska State Legislature.
