Resolve No.
32

Declaring 1997 to be observed as the 80th Anniversary of the University of Alaska Fairbanks and recognizing the vital role played by the University of Alaska Fairbanks.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines was created as a land grant college in 1917, after extensive debate in the Alaska Territorial Legislature about whether to accept the federal government land grant for a college, and today is known as the University of Alaska Fairbanks; and

WHEREAS the University of Alaska Fairbanks is celebrating 80 years of serving the state by teaching, research, and public service; and

WHEREAS the University of Alaska Fairbanks, first as a land grant institution and now a sea grant and space grant institution, is mandated to deliver to the public the practical knowledge produced by the research it performs; and

WHEREAS the University of Alaska Fairbanks is one of only 12 institutions in the country that have the "triple crown" of land, sea, and space grant designations; and

WHEREAS the University of Alaska Fairbanks has grown along with the state it serves and has made the state a better place for all of its citizens; and

WHEREAS advancements made by scientists working at the University of Alaska

Fairbanks in the areas of northern engineering, global climate change, marine sciences, and arctic biology have changed the way the world views the Arctic;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature declares that 1997 is to be observed as the 80th Anniversary of the University of Alaska Fairbanks and recognizes the vital role the University of Alaska Fairbanks plays in meeting national and state needs and in making the lives of all Alaskans prosperous and fulfilling.

COPIES of this resolution shall be sent to Jerome Komisar, President of the University of Alaska, and to Joan Wadlow, Chancellor of the University of Alaska Fairbanks.
