1 legislature in joint session. The public members may not be state officers or 2 employees. Four of the public members may not be, nor have been in the past 3 five years, employed by a person whose primary business is, or who owns a 4 controlling interest in a corporation whose primary business is, the exploration 5 for or development, production, transportation, sale, refining, or processing of 6 petroleum products. One of the public members shall possess experience in 7 petroleum-related fields in such areas as exploration, development, production, 8 or economics.

9 * Sec. 3. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS. Notwithstanding the provisions of 10 AS 38.06.025, as amended by secs. 1 and 2 of this Act, the three public members serving on 11 the Alaska Royalty Oil and Gas Development Advisory Board on the effective date of this Act 12 may continue to serve on the board for the remainder of the terms for which the members 13 were appointed. The governor shall appoint two additional public members, subject to 14 confirmation by the legislature, to the board within 90 days after the effective date of this Act.
15 One of the additional public members shall serve a six-year term, and, notwithstanding the 16 provisions of AS 38.06.025(b), as amended by sec. 2 of this Act, the other additional public 17 member shall serve a seven-year term. Neither may be, nor have been in the past five years, 18 employed by a person whose primary business is, or who owns a controlling interest in a 19 corporation whose primary business is, the exploration for or development, production, 20 transportation, sale, refining, or processing of petroleum products.
