

Repeal.

Section 2. That Chapter 1 of the 1917 Session Laws of the Territory of Alaska be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved April 19, 1929.

CHAPTER 28.

AN ACT

[H. B. 15]

To provide for the escheatment of property belonging to defunct fraternal, beneficial or social organizations or corporations, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Escheatment
of certain property.

Section 1. Whenever any fraternal, beneficial or social organization or corporation shall become defunct leaving money or property belonging to it, and no person interested in such money or property shall, within four years after such organization or corporation ceased to function, institute any proceeding to have such money or property distributed to persons entitled thereto, the same shall be delivered or transferred to the Treasurer of the Territory. If the person or persons in possession of or holding such money or property shall refuse to do so, or if the property be real estate, the Attorney General shall institute the proper proceedings to recover such money or other property for, or to adjudge title to such real estate to be in, the Territory.

Attorney General to enforce.

No action for one year.

Section 2. That no action or proceeding in court shall be instituted by the Attorney General until one year after the passage and approval of this Act, and that any person interested in any money or property belonging to such organization or corporation who does not institute the proper proceedings within four years after such organization or corporation becomes defunct, or within one year after the passage or approval of this Act, or before the proper proceedings are instituted by the Attorney General to recover such money or property for the Territory, shall forfeit all rights to such money or property, and the whole thereof shall be deemed to have escheated to the Territory of Alaska.

Claimant forfeit rights, when.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Emergency.

Approved April 22, 1929.

CHAPTER 29.

AN ACT

[H. B. 20]

To amend the Fifth subdivision of Section 12 of Chapter 97 of the Session Laws of Alaska of 1923, relating to the powers and jurisdiction of Municipal Councils.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That the Fifth subdivision of Section 12, Article III of Chapter 97, Session Laws of 1923 be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

“Fifth: To provide for the location and construction, for a limited distance and to a limited extent, of trails and roads outside the limits of the city, but leading to and from the same, where such roads and trails are necessary for promoting the welfare and prosperity of the city; and also to provide for the location, construction and maintenance of hydroplane ports and moorings, including hangars, lighting equipment, and other necessary facilities and aeroplane landing fields, either within the corporate limits of the city, or within ten miles of the exterior boundaries thereof; and also to provide for the location, construction and maintenance of parks and playgrounds,

Roads and trails for limited distance outside city limits.

Hydroplane ports, etc.