

prepare our future citizens to cope with and take hold of our industrial life, and

WHEREAS, this has caused many families to leave the Territory in order to enable their children to secure greater learning, thereby losing to our Territory the best type of growing citizens who would otherwise become real Alaskans, now therefor [therefore]

BE IT RESOLVED that this Legislature instruct the Commissioner of Education to make a survey of conditions with the view of establishing regional High Schools at Nome and other parts of our vast Territory and also to determine the most feasible manner of having all high schools accredited by the Universities of the Pacific Northwest, thereby enabling children from our isolated areas to secure the necessary education so vital to their progress within reasonable distances from their own localities, and that the Commissioner of Education make a report of his findings and recommendation to the Territorial Board of Education for action as soon as possible.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

WHEREAS, the daily journal of the Senate and House for April 30th has not been read or approved, and as the validity of all measures passed by the Legislature on that date depends upon the correct journal entries being made at each stage of their consideration;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate and House concurring that the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House in conjunction with the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the House, be authorized, after the close of the Session, to revise and arrange said journals in proper and correct order and sign same, and that said President of the Senate and Speaker of the House be allowed the same salary as they are now receiving, as members of the Legislature, for a period of time not to exceed ten days.
