

Emergency.

Section 8. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

Approved May 4, 1933.

CHAPTER 122.

AN ACT

[H. B. 23]

To appropriate funds for the protection of the Town of Hyder, Alaska from the encroachments of Salmon River, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Flood control of Salmon river—appropriation.

Section 1. The sum of $7,000.00 or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated and made available and payable out of the road funds appropriated and allotted to the First Division of the Territory of Alaska, for the biennium ending March 31, 1935. The same to be expended in the repair and maintenance of the embankments, barriers and channels heretofore constructed in connection with the control of the flood waters in the Salmon River, adjacent to the town of Hyder, Alaska.

When appropriation available—how expended.

Section 2. This appropriation shall be made immediately available only when the Congress of the United States shall make an appropriation for the carrying out of the recommendations of the chief of engineers of the United States Army made by said engineer to the Secretary of War under date of January 31, 1932, wherein the adoption of a project for the control of the flood waters of the Salmon River at the town of Hyder was suggested.

The aforesaid sum of money in this Section mentioned as herein set forth shall be expended under the direction of the Alaska Road Commission or such other agency as may be entrusted by the aforesaid Chief of Engineers to carry out the said suggested and recommended project.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist ^{Emergency.} and this Act shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Approved May 4, 1933.

CHAPTER 123.

AN ACT

[H. B. 94]

To appropriate the sum of $12,547.00 to pay claims against the Territory of Alaska, for hospitalization, medical services, and for other purposes and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. The sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred and Forty-seven Dollars ($12,547.00) is hereby appropriated out of the monies in the Territorial Treasury, not otherwise appropriated to cover the following claims against the Territory of Alaska, as follows:

For hospital and indigent expenses.

Ketchikan General Hospital, hospitalization of A. Christensen	$ 395.00
Wrangell General Hospital, hospitalization of J. Halstead	1,842.50
E. J. Dyer and Co. burial of E. Burgell, A. G. Johnson, Baby Skillie, C. Carlson	265.00

(Above amount to be paid after investigation and approval by the Governor.)