

CHAPTER 18.

AN ACT

[S. B. 36]

To amend Sections 1806 and 1807 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1913, relating to juries in the justice court.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Sections 1806 and 1807 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1913, relating to juries in the justice court, be, and the same are, hereby amended to read as follows:

Justice's jury—
how ordered and selected.

“Section 1806 When a jury has been demanded by a party to an action (in a justice's court) the justice must make an order in writing accordingly and proceed to select a trial jury as provided in Section Six of Chapter 100, Session Laws 1931.”

Jurors—how subpoenaed.

“Section 1807. After a sufficient number of names has been drawn the justice shall make an order requiring the jurors to appear before the justice forthwith or at the time to which the trial may be postponed, and deliver the same to the United States Marshal, or his Deputy, or other person specially appointed for service.”

Approved April 11, 1933.
