CHAPTER 45.

AN ACT

[S. B. 35]

To define legal fences and to provide for the collection of damages for trespass by animals on lands lawfully fenced and to repeal Chapter 58, Session Laws of Alaska, 1917, as amended by Chapter 88, Session Laws of Alaska, 1931.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Legal fences defined.

Section 1. The following fences only are legal and they must not be less than four feet in height above the surface of the ground:

(a) All fences constructed of at least one strong pole, rail or board, and three of either wires, or strong poles, rails or boards, or both, so that there be three altogether thereunder, which lower three, whether all wires, or poles, rails or boards and wires, may be arranged at the pleasure of the builder; but all must be fastened firmly as nearly equi-distant as possible to substantial posts firmly set in the ground, not more than twenty feet apart, or fastened to well-supported, substantial leaning posts not more than twenty feet apart. The lower pole, rail, board or wire shall not be more than one foot and a half above the ground.

(b) All fences constructed of at least four horizontal wires each, if cabled, to consist of not less than
