

CHAPTER 3.

AN ACT

[S. B. 10]

To amend Section 3732, Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, relating to sale of personal and real property.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Amended.

That Section 3732, Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, be amended to read as follows:

Execution sale.
—Where and how made.

Section 1. Sales, where and how made: All sales of property upon execution shall be made by auction between nine o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution no more shall be sold. Neither the officer holding the execution nor his deputy shall become a purchaser or be interested in any purchase at such sale. When the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery and not in the possession of a third person, association, or corporation it shall be within view of those who attend the sale, unless the court by its judgment or decree direct the sale to be at some other place, and the property shall be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price, and when the sale is of real property and consists of several known lots or parcels they shall be sold separately or otherwise, as is likely to bring the highest price, or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion of it shall be sold separately.

Approved February 19, 1937.
