Chapter No.

67

AN ACT

Relating to the compilation of jury lists.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 09.20.050 is amended to read:

Sec. 09.20.050. JURY LIST. At such times as the presiding judge of the superior court in each judicial district may designate, but not less than once every two years, the clerk of the superior court in each judicial district shall prepare a list of the names of residents of the district who are qualified by law for jury service. The list shall contain the names of all persons who purchased a resident hunting or fishing license, all residents who filed a state income tax return for the preceding year, as well as those persons who voted in the preceding general election. If the superior court is located in different cities in the same judicial district, the clerk of the court located in each city shall prepare, at the times designated by the judge but at least every two years, a list of names of persons qualified for jury service. The list shall contain the names of all persons who purchased a resident hunting or fishing license, all residents who filed a state income tax return for the preceding year, as well as those persons who voted in the preceding general election and who are residents of that portion of the judicial district designated by the presiding judge. The list shall be based on the list of persons, prepared by the Department of Revenue or the Department of Fish and Game, who purchased a resident hunting or fishing license, who filed a resident state income tax return for the preceding year, and the voting list prepared by the secretary of state from the preceding general election. A questionnaire for prospective jurors may be adopted and submitted to them by the administrative director of courts. A copy of the list shall be
